REMARKS

50X1-HUM

Sixty-three single-engine aircraft have been seen parked on the northeastern edge of the Brandenburg-Arado (N 53/Z 23) airfield since 1 March 1951 [redacted] Four temporary buildings for the storage of ammunition, located in the southeastern section of the field, were surrounded by barbed wire fences. Ammunition boxes about 150 to 200 cm long and 70 to 80 cm in diameter were stored there [redacted] A temporary brick building 30 meters long and fenced-in was on the southwestern edge of the field. Wooden frames about 1 to 2 meters long and 60 to 70 cm wide were piled nearby. There was intensive activity near the temporary building. *

* [redacted] Comment. [redacted]

[redacted] There are no indications that the field is occupied by more than one ground attack regiment. The temporary brick building is probably being also used for the storage of ammunition.
